The Lord's Day bread-breaking meeting

The Lord's Day bread-breaking meeting is of profound significance to a Christian because it is the only meeting that was established by the Lord when He was on earth. The Bible records in Matthew 26:26-28 that on the night before His crucifixion, after taking the feast of the Passover with His disciples, Jesus instituted the Lord's table with the bread and the cup. He blessed the bread, broke it and gave it to the disciples to eat, saying that this is His body. Then He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to the disciples to drink, saying that this is the blood of the new covenant, which is being poured out for many for forgiveness of sins. The Lord also charged the disciples to do this unto the remembrance of Him.

The Lord has called us out of every tongue, nation, and people to constitute His Body, the Church. We affirm our commitment to this testimony in truth and in practice by meeting as the members of the Body of Christ and as the branches of the true vine, bearing fruit by spreading the gospel to our friends, neighbors, relatives, and all the seeking ones in the world. We cordially welcome everyone who desires to gain salvation and every Christian who desires to have fellowship, to come and enjoy the feast of our Lord Jesus Christ together with us, and to obtain grace from our "Savior God, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the full knowledge of the truth." (1 Tim. 2:3-4)

This Weeks's Pursuit:

Entering Into the Fourth Stage of the Experience of Life to Arrive at a Full-Grown Man for the Fulfillment of God's Purpose

The Fourth Stage of the Experience of Life (1) - Knowing the Body (Week 2)

I. In order to know the Body, we have to deal with and renounce the self, which is the enemy of the Body—Matt. 16:18, 21-26; Luke 9:23-25

The self is the fallen soul declaring independence from God and, thus, independence from the Body; the greatest problem, the greatest frustration and opposition, to the Body is the self.

II. In order to know the Body, we must see the vision of the Body—Eph. 1:17; 3:3-6

We do not need knowledge; rather, we need revelation to know the Body of Christ and to enter into the realm of the Body; only a revelation from God will usher us into the realm of the Body, and only then will the Body of Christ become our experience.

Once a man sees the Body of Christ, he is free from individualism; he will no longer live for himself but for the Body; he becomes Body-conscious and Body-centered and is freed from being self-centered—Rom. 12:5.

III. In order to know the Body, we must be under the limitation of the Body; as members of the Body, we must allow ourselves to be limited by the other members, not going beyond our measure:

God has placed all the members of the Body even as He willed; the Head sets us in our special place in the Body and points us to our special function—Rom. 12:4-5; 1 Cor. 12:15-21.

Lessons on Prayer - Chapter 3

VI. MUST BE ONE WHOSE LIVING CORRESPONDS TO HIS PRAYER

As a man of prayer, your living must be consistent, or must correspond, to what you pray. Someone may be asking the Lord for the revival of the church or the salvation of a sinner, yet his living is utterly inconsistent with his prayer. He does not live a life that contributes to the revival of the church, nor does he live in a condition that is conducive to bringing sinners to salvation. Although he may be praying, he is not a man of prayer. A man of prayer not only performs the action of prayer but also lives the life of prayer—his living is prayer. Many times we pray for a number of things, but, after praying, we do not live according to the standard of life required by those things. This means we go through the motions of prayer, but we are not men of prayer.
