Burden & Fellowship

MEETING IN EVERY HOME

According to our study, experience, and observation, I would say that we have found that the home meetings are the unique way for the increase and building up of the church. There are many positive things that come out of the home meetings. In the home meetings, everyone becomes a seeking one, a serving one, a preaching one, a teaching one, and one that spontaneously witnesses for the Lord. We hope to encourage all the saints in the Lord's recovery to have meetings in their homes.

The Greek phrase in Acts 5:42 indicates that not one house was missed. They met from house to house. We should not take the way of selecting some promising homes, and then having the meetings in those promising homes. This is wrong. Every home of the believers is promising. We need to open up our home. First we can meet with our folks. We do not need to meet with others first. We can initiate our home meeting by meeting with our family members. We who have wives and children all can have a home meeting. We just meet with our folks, with our wife, and with our little children. To set up a meeting will stir up our heart and will fan the flame in our heart and in our spirit. First of all, we will be burned, and then our family will be burned. To set up a home meeting will keep out many evil things from our homes.

Do not say that you are weak, that you cannot overcome your self, that you cannot overcome your temper, that you cannot control yourself, that you cannot do this or that. Just set up a home meeting in your home. I have seen in many cases that when you set up a meeting in your home the Holy Spirit brings people to you. Gradually people will come. I would say that if you are a Christian, yet you do not have a home meeting, you are not up to the standard. You may know the Bible, be spiritual, be seeking, love the Lord, and so forth, but if you do not open your home, you are not up to the standard. Even a single sister could open her apartment for meetings. Every lodging of the saints, whether single or with a family, should be opened up for meeting. You may say, "With whom do we meet?" First, with the angels, then with a believer, then with a neighbor. You must pray, endeavor, and even fast until you get a neighbor to come to meet with you. If you determine to have some meeting with you in your home, surely there is a way. A lot of persons are around you every day. You have a lot of relatives and friends.

Are you going to be holy? Set up a home meeting. Are you going to be spiritual? Set up a home meeting. Are you going to know the Bible? Nothing will force you to seek the knowledge of the Bible more than setting up a home meeting. The home meetings will force you to seek after the proper, spiritual knowledge, and while you are seeking the knowledge for teaching others, you yourself will be taught, enlightened, and nourished. I can recall my own history. When I was trying to teach others I began to realize that I needed to be taught. The definite, single, and sole step for the Lord's recovery to take today is to promote the home meetings. This is the unique way.

The Fourth Stage of the Experience of Life (5) - Full of the Stature of Christ

I. When we speak about being full of the stature of Christ, we mean that our life in Christ has attained to the realm of full maturity.

While life is God Himself, God being our life is Christ; therefore, the Bible says that Christ is our life. We can say that when we are regenerated, it is Christ being born again within us to be our life. But when we first receive it, this life is still very young and immature, which means that the stature of Christ within us is very small. When we love Christ, seek Christ, and allow Christ to live in us more and thereby gain us, the stature of Christ gradually increases within us. This is the growth of life. Since this life is Christ who lives in us, the growth of this life is therefore the increase of the stature of Christ within us.

II. If we are lacking in spiritual stature—the stature of Christ—we cannot be built up as the Body of Christ.

III. The growth of the stature of Christ within us has five steps:

*Christ enters into us to become our life.
Christ lives in us and gradually grows in us.
Christ is formed in us.*

Christ makes His home in us and is manifested through us.

The result of Christ entering into us, living in us, being formed in us, and making His home in us and being manifested through us is that we are full of the stature of Christ and arrive at the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

IV. The experience of being full of the stature of Christ involves the following crucial points:

A. Being full of the stature of Christ is not an individual matter—it is a corporate matter, a Body matter.

B. Being full of the stature of Christ means that we are full of the life and nature of Christ.

C. When a believer arrives at the full stature of Christ, he is in the same position as Christ, both in objective fact and in experience.

D. One who is full of the stature of Christ reigns with Christ.

E. One who is full of the stature of Christ deals, together with Christ, with the enemy.

F. When the life of a Christian reaches this stage, every part of his being has come to maturity, and he is waiting to be raptured to enter into glory with Christ—Re

V. As a portrait of the progressive experience of an individual believer's loving fellowship with Christ, Song of Songs reveals how a lover of the Lord becomes full of the stature of Christ.

LIFE OF PRAYER

III. THIS LIFE ABSOLUTELY HATES SINS

Since the life of prayer within us is also a life that hates sins, one who wishes to learn how to pray must also thoroughly deal with sins. This life within man has a characteristic that hates sins and also an ability that enables man to deal with sins. If you are even slightly defiled by sins, or love the world a little, immediately there is the consciousness within that you do not correspond to the characteristic of this life. Not only sins and the world, but even a little pride, criticism, despising others, introspection, self-boasting, or presumptuous thought will make you unable to pray. Any dishonesty, unfaithfulness, unrighteousness, or injustice will quench the life of prayer.
