NATIONAL COLLEGE TRAINING (July 12-18, 2015)

Lord's Day, July 12, 2015

As students arrived they began to sing and declare hymns, including a new hymn written for the college training. They sang and prayed the chorus: "I will choose to be a living overcomer / Be a person not ashamed to be a Jesus lover, / One who eats the tree of life, / And drinks the living water! / I will give myself to be an overcomer, / To see a heavenly vision, / Keep my flaming spirit burning! / Lord, I give myself to You to turn this age." The burden of the college training is to provide an atmosphere to see a heavenly vision, to be equipped with the truth, and to be helped in their experience of life.

Monday, July 13, 2015

Day two at the 2015 National College Training brought more enjoyment, building up and pursuing! As the first full day of the training, the trainees are adjusting to the schedule and the pace of the training. It's been very impressive to see all the planning, prayer, and coordination it takes to carry out such an unprecedented endeavor! There are coordinated eating times, meeting times, exercise times, and many other practical arrangements. It is no small task to feed and take care of almost 1700 trainees! What a great sight to see so many trainees expressing Christ and blending all over campus!

Tuesday, July 14, 2015

AGE-TURNERS! The Lord spoke a sober and serious word regarding the kind of life that changes the age. To be one of God's age-turners we must, like Noah, overcome the stupefying effect of the age we live in and inherit the godly ways of our forefathers to build the ark, the church. Like Moses, we must be like the thornbush that is burning with the divine fire, allowing Him to work through and with us to accomplish His purpose.

Wednesday, July 15, 2015

For the gospel message we were implored to spend much time in the Word so that we can impart the Word into others! Our own words will not cause people to believe with their heart and confess with their mouth. Instead we have to speak the Word into people. We can't be afraid of persecution, we must be like Peter and John who stood and spoke to the people "all the words of this life."

Thursday, July 16, 2015

Age-tuners know the Lord's presence, experience the two aspects of the Spirit, and run with those! This is God's need! God needs the overcomers! In the appendix of The Glorious Church, brother Nee says that, "If a dispensational move is near, then God needs an instrument...What are we doing to close this dispensation? What are we doing to bring in the next age? This is a special time, so there is the need of special Christians to do a special work."

Friday, July 17, 2015

In the evening meeting, brother Minoru faithfully and soberly spoke of the Lord's jealousy to claim what was His (2 Cor. 11:2). He called for His young men to offer themselves willingly in the day of His warfare, in the splendor of their consecration that they would be the dew for the Lord to drink of and be satisfied (Psalms 110:3, 7). He called for the willing, corporate consecration from the trainees, and what ensued was a splendor that none of us had witnessed before. Student after student, corporately, publicly, specifically, consecrating their college years, the Full-Time Training, and their lives to the Lord to turn this age!

Prayer burden

1. Lord, we thank You for Your redemption and full salvation that brought us to the divine sphere, a realm where You can exercise Your authority to accomplish Your heart desire. We utterly repudiate the flesh in both its good and evil aspects and to be under Your ruling. Under You headship everything is in proper order.
2. Lord, thank you for the gospel of grace in which we became believers through faith. We praise You even more for the gospel of the kingdom for us to become Your disciples being trained, ruled, disciplined, and dealt with by Your authority.
3. Lord, we want to experience the dispensing of the Divine Trinity corporately by living in the kingdom, the reality of the church, wherein we live, move, act in the divine life.
4. Lord, as the kingdom people we submit ourselves to the authority of the kingdom. How we praise You that under the heavenly ruling, and restriction, we have genuine freedom, the proper freedom in love, with life, and under light.
5. Lord, we still pray for all the student that attended the National College Training 2015 - God's Age-Turners continue to attract and capture them. Remember their consecration and grant them Your mercy.
6. Pray for the church in Regina. Pray for the Bible distribution in September 9, 2015 at the University of Regina.
7. Pray for the construction of the meeting hall of the church in Vancouver and Surrey. Pray for the propagation in the Prairies. Lord bless Your work.

We need to confess our sins; to praise the Lord; to thank the Lord; to call on the name of the Lord; to sing to the Lord; to preach the gospel, making known to others what Christ has accomplished; to function in the meetings of the church; to give the Lord the preeminence in our being; to do everything according to the divine nature.

God is everything, God does everything, God gives everything.

A Portrait of the Kingdom of God

Scripture Reading: Exo. 18; Mark 1:14-15; Matt. 6:10, 13; John 3:3, 5; Rom. 14:17; Col. 1:13

I. The kingdom of God is a divine sphere for God to work out His plan according to the good pleasure of His will— Mark 1:15; Eph. 1:5:

The kingdom of God is a realm where God can exercise His authority to accomplish what He intends. The kingdom of God is the ruling, the reigning, of God with all its blessing and enjoyment.

II. Exodus 18 presents a portrait, a type, of the kingdom of God, in which the tabernacle, God's dwelling place, was built:

The fact that this portrait is presented after the war against Amalek signifies that when the flesh as God's enemy is dealt with, the kingdom with the kingship immediately comes in, and the church as the Body of Christ is built up. In order to realize the kingdom with the building up of the church, we must utterly repudiate the flesh in both its good and evil aspects.

In the experience of God's full salvation, the kingdom comes after God's people have been delivered from Satan (haraoh) and the world (Egypt) and after the flesh (Amalek) has been defeated and subdued. After the defeat of Amalek, the kingdom is needed as the sphere, the environment, for the building up of God's dwelling place on earth. Exodus 18:13-26 portrays the authority and order of the kingdom; Christ, signified by Moses, is the Head of authority, and under the headship of Christ everything is kept in a proper order.

III. For the building up of God's dwelling place on earth, need to live a kingdom life in the church as the kingdom of God—Matt. 16:18-19; Rom. 14:17:

Through the gospel of the kingdom, God brings people under the ruling of the heavenly authority so that they may become His kingdom, those who are ruled by His authority. The kingdom of God is the gospel; thus, to know the gospel requires that we know the kingdom. The gospel is proclaimed so that rebellious sinners might be saved, qualified, and equipped to enter into the kingdom of God. The gospel of the kingdom brings the believers into the realm of the divine ruling in order that they may participate in the blessings of the divine life in the divine kingdom.

Without the kingdom as the reality of the church, the church cannot be built up. The church is brought into being through the authority of the kingdom; when the kingdom is able to assert its authority over a company of believers, those believers can be built up into the church.

The church as the kingdom of God is the kingdom of the Son of God's love, a most pleasant and delightful place where we are ruled in life, light, and love. The kingdom of God is a divine realm to be entered into— a realm that requires the divine life. The kingdom is not only the reign of God but also the realm of the divine life. In actuality, God's reigning over us is not an outward matter but a matter of the innate ability of the divine life. The way to enter into the kingdom of God is to receive God in Christ as life; this is regeneration.

The kingdom of God is a realm of light. Light is God's shining, God's expression.

The kingdom of God is a realm of truth. Truth is the Triune God—the Father, the Son, and the Spirit—with the Word of God. Truthfulness is the revealed divine reality becoming our genuineness and sincerity so that we may live a life that corresponds to the divine light.

The kingdom of God is a realm of grace. Grace is the Triune God in His incarnation to be dispensed into the believers by the Father as the source, by the Son as the element, and by the Spirit as the application. Grace is God becoming our enjoyment; grace means that God is everything, God does everything, and God gives everything.

The kingdom of God is a realm of shepherding. The Lord shepherds us by feeding us with Himself and in Himself as the pasture, by being life to us and by living in us; His living within us is actually His shepherding. In the kingdom of God as the realm of the divine life, we live a life of shepherding.

The kingdom of God is a realm of glory. Glory is the expression of God, God expressed in splendor. God's glory goes with His kingdom; the kingdom is a realm in which God exercises His authority so that He can express His glory. As we live a kingdom life in the church as the kingdom of God, we are "being built together into a dwelling place of God in spirit"
