

CHURCH IN REGINA

ISSUE # 37 | SEPT 12, 2026 | VOLUME XIV

If we have the vision of the age and read Ezekiel 14:14 and 20 we see that Noah, Daniel, and Job are patterns revealing how we can live an overcoming life on the line of life to fulfil the economy of God. In Ezekiel 14 the Lord exposes the fact that every man of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart and sets the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face and goes to the prophet, God will not be found by such ones. Having idols estranges God's people from God. The people of Israel have set up not just outward material idols but they had idols in their heart. Having an idol doesn't mean only that we worship a physical exterior idol; rather, idols are things in our heart.

The Lord continues to say that, when a land sins against God by acting unfaithfully and He stretches out His hand over it and breaks its staff of bread and sends a famine against it and cut off man and beast from it, even though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in the midst of it, they could only deliver their own souls by their righteousness (Ezek. 14:12). Later the Lord similarly says that, when He judges the land, destroys its inhabitants, and no one can dwell in the land, even though these three men were in the midst of it, they could not deliver even their own sons and daughters.

There are four kinds of judgments that God exercises over the land, and then He mentions that, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in the midst of the land, they can only deliver their own souls by their righteousness. This is something very serious. An idol is anything apart from God that occupies our heart. Worshipping an idol does not mean merely that we go to an idol temple to worship; rather, it is worshipping things set up in our heart to replace God.

In the time of Noah, people were indulging in the pleasures of the world, eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage. They indulged in their lust and sin, and they did all kinds of evil things. They were stupefied by the outward world, the entertainment, and all kinds of sins. In the time of Daniel (approx. 620 BC), he was captured and taken to Babylon, where it was full of idols and pagan gods; under that situation, Daniel had to overcome all the religious superstitious idols. At the time of Job (approx. 2000 BC), he lived about the same time as Abraham, he was full of self-righteousness, being satisfied with himself and his own uprightness. So God allowed a series of sufferings to come on him, and Job even challenged God, trying to take God to court, thinking He was dealing unfairly with him.

Even our own self-justification and self-satisfaction are a kind of idol. We worship our own kind of righteousness, our own uprightness. Whether it is worldly amusements, sin, religious superstition, self-justification, or self-satisfaction in man's heart, all these can be idols separating man from God and estranging man from God.

However, we need to be like Noah, Daniel, and Job in this age; we need to live an overcoming life on the line of life to fulfil the economy of God. God wants to become the living spring to us so that we may drink of Him, enjoy Him, and take Him as our supply and everything. We need to have a living and work that are different from the people of this age; we need to be the overcomers in this age.

We need to overcome the idols and live an overcoming life on the line of life. As we see in Psalm 16:11, we need the Lord to show us the way of His life. We need to walk on a way that is not the way of law, the way of ethics and morality, even the way of religion; we need to walk on the pathway of life. Life is just God Himself.

We are not just people who know the Bible but we're those who draw near to Him, are willing to receive God into us, and allow God to fill and saturate us and be everything to us. We want to be fully joined and mingled together with God, and we live on the line of life, even live an overcoming life, in the organic relationship with God. May we prayerfully consider the life and work of Noah, Daniel, and Job and be those who live an overcoming life on the line of life to fulfill the economy of God. May we overcome all idols in our being and around us, and may we live in the mingled spirit. May we be the age-turners the Lord is gaining today. The Lord wants to return quickly, but He needs a group of people who will cooperate with Him in order to turn the age (Excerpts from The Ministry of the Word, Noah, Daniel and Job. Living an overcoming life to fulfill God's Economy under God's faithfulness. Week 1).

Go therefore and disciple all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
~ Matt.28:19

PRAYER BURDENS:

1. Lord, produce in us a testimony of such a rainbow – blue to signify Your righteousness, red to signify Your holiness, and yellow to signify Your glory. Keep working Yourself into us, saturating our being with Yourself.
2. Constitute us with Yourself. We want to gain You, to receive You and be one with You. You are the cornerstone to build up the church and the crushing stone cut without hands to destroy the totality of human government.
3. Thank You for building Yourself into us – that we are not merely Your creation, but also Your divine building. Continue to use and expose our flesh that we may come forward with boldness to the throne of grace.
4. Lord, increase the degree of light we receive and uplift our experience to the “third level” where there is only one opening, one revelation, and one vision. Grant us more experiences that would bring us to the Father.
5. Have mercy on us that we would see the Christ that Daniel saw. Reveal to us the vision of the excellent Christ who is precious, valuable, complete and perfect. You are our Priest taking care of us, and our King ruling over us.
6. Lord, usher us into another realm that we may gain God. Cause us to turn to our spirit and to live under the dispensing of God's eternal economy. May we all do everything by, with, in, and through the Spirit.
